LOGLINE:

Following a cryptic vision, a man stuck in a rut is tasked with finding and helping 26 strangers—one for every letter of the alphabet—in a race to transform their lives and save his own soul.

SUMMARY:

The Alphabet of Redemption. Arthur is a high-powered corporate lawyer who spends his days shielding giants and his nights drowning in the beige boredom of elite parties. Seeking a spark of life, he experiments with a dose of hallucinogenic mushrooms, only to be plunged into a surreal fever dream: a world of giant, sentient letters chanting a rhythmic, haunting alphabet.

When the visions refuse to fade, Arthur's polished reality begins to crack. Therapy fails to silence the ABCs, but a final, lucid dream delivers a cryptic ultimatum: to find his own peace, he must find—and truly help—twenty-six strangers, each representing a letter of the alphabet.

From 'A' to 'Z,' Arthur embarks on a bizarre and transformative scavenger hunt for humanity. As he navigates twenty-six lives he would have once ignored, the line between his waking world and the psychedelic vision blurs. By the time he reaches the end of the line, Arthur must decide if his journey was a lingering trip or the wake-up call he desperately needed to trade his corporate armor for a life of purpose.
